Coming into the world as a baby in the manger of Bethlehem, the Christ Child fulfilled the prophecies of long ago; prophecies that spoke of a savior for His people. On the Feast of the Epiphany, the three wise men find the Christ Child and recognize in Him a light for the entire world. Their gifts acknowledge that He is a King of David's line, that He is divine, and that He will one day die in order to redeem a sinful humanity. Now, at His baptism, Jesus begins His public life with the revelation of Himself as the Messiah of Israel and the Son of God.

The baptism of Jesus is on His part the acceptance and inauguration of His mission as God's Suffering Servant. Though sinless, He allows Himself to be seen in solidarity with sinners. Already He anticipates the "baptism" of His death on the cross. Already, Jesus submits Himself entirely to the Father's will: out of love He consents to this baptism of death for the remission of our sins. The coming of the Spirit upon Jesus prefigures the moment when Christ will pour out the Holy Spirit into the hearts of all believers, giving them the gift of new life.
